

Mackenzie Thorpe Sculpture Installation

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

This exhibition brings Mackenzie Thorpe's images and themes to the forefront of each hosting region and furthers these locations as major contributors to contemporary public art.

To succeed in our goal of returning contemporary art to “the street,” we must provide something of value to the hosting community. By staging a major indoor and outdoor exhibition from an internationally recognized talent, entirely funded by the private sector, we bring a significant cultural experience, which may never have been possible otherwise.

It has been our mission to support the communities willing to support our artists, not just monetarily, but through direct work with local charities. Over the last five years, Mackenzie Thorpe and The Chase Group have staged children's art workshops in cities and towns from New York to New Zealand, and from inner city London to Aboriginal settlements in the outback of Australia. Nearly $500,000 has been raised via Mackenzie Thorpe exhibitions in the last five years alone.

We will partner with a local children's charity in each city where Mackenzie will host several interactive art workshops with kids (see attached “Interactive Workshops” page). A portion of exhibition proceeds will be donated to the selected charity; furthering Mackenzie's ongoing fundraising campaigns and generating much needed funds for children across the world.
